Holley Staff News:

Holley Staff wants you to know that we miss you and we can't wait for you to be back at school.

Lunch is served daily from 11:00-1:00. In addition to getting lunch each day students will also get breakfast for the following day.

PBIS during Distance Learning:

The Holley PBIS Team has started two different incentive systems for students this month. Students will go in a raffle each week if they show up for a zoom everyday and/or turn in all their assignments in a week. We are also doing a focus on ZOOM attendance. Classrooms who have excellent attendance in a ZOOM meeting will receive a piece of a Mr. Potato head, once finished the class will receive a prize.

Daily Attendance during Distance Learning

In order to be counted as positive attendance each day, ensure that you child does one of these each day:

- Participating in video classes during a school day
- Communication between a student and teacher (Zoom Chat, Canvas discussion post, email, text, Remind app, phone call)
- A phone call between a student and an instructional assistant
- Posting a completed assignment to Canvas or attaching to teacher email within 24 hours of class instruction
